Wavelength

06 February to 20 March 2022

The exhibition of artworks uses a variety of media - painting, drawing, sculpture, photography and film - to convey the creative dialogue with psychiatric situations. Nine students of the Academy of Arts Münster deal with the social context of psychiatry. The question is as to whether there is a wavelength between art and psychiatry. Are there parameters according to which we perceive both, and if so, where do they lie, who determines them? What kind of interactions and interferences result? Do the two resonate similarly or do they respond to each other? The exhibition invites us to explore these questions.

Robert Burda, drawings

03 July to 25 September 2022

In this solo exhibition, we experience the world through the eyes of Robert Burda, from his childhood to old age, from the buses and trains of his homeland to vacation trips and objects of his everyday life. Robert Burda documents his life in detail and from his very own perspective. In his drawings, he manages, in his unique way, to let the viewer in on his perception. The winner of the European Art Prize EUWARD shows the importance of things.
